KINGCADE & GARCIA, P.A. EARNS BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU ACCREDITATION

MIAMI – Kingcade & Garcia, P.A., (www.miamibankruptcy.com) a Miami-based bankruptcy and foreclosure defense law firm, is pleased to announce its accreditation into the Better Business Bureau.

“We are extremely proud to have received this accreditation into the Better Business Bureau,” says Founding Partner and Managing Shareholder, Timothy S. Kingcade. “In today’s competitive marketplace, it is important that our clients know just how serious we take quality customer service and business ethics. As a firm, we value a commitment to excellence and this award validates that to our clients.”

As a private, non-profit organization, the purpose of the Better Business Bureau is to promote an ethical marketplace. Accreditation to the BBB is by invitation only, and like all businesses that are accredited by the BBB, Kingcade & Garcia, P.A. has committed to the BBB Code of Business Practices. The Code is a comprehensive set of policies, procedures, and best practices on how businesses treat consumers. These standards call for building trust, embodying integrity, advertising honestly and being truthful. To maintain accreditation, a business must be transparent, honor their promises, be responsive to their customers, and safeguard their privacy.
